

As part of its recently announced reorganization plan, the company has divided underwriting responsibilities into six geographic areas:

Southwest States-LA/AR/OK/NM/TX for which the Regional Underwriting Counsel will be John Rothermel;

Northeast/MidAtlantic States – ME/MA/NH/VT/RI/CT/NJ/PA/MD/DE/VA/DC/WV for which the Regional Underwriting Counsel will be Larry Bell;

Southeast States – FL/NC/SC/GA/AL/Mississippi/PR/Virgin Islands for which the Regional Underwriting Counsel will be Craig Jontz;

Midwest States – WI/MI/OH/KY/TN/MO/KS/NE/IL/IN/IA for which the Regional Underwriting Counsel will be Marsha Laner;

Western States – CA/AZ/NV/HI/Guam for which the Regional Underwriting Counsel will be Bob Cavallero;

Rockies/Pacific Northwest States – WA/OR/SD/ND/CO/UT/ID/MN/AK/MT for which the will be Collyer Church.

Each Regional Underwriting Counsel will manage the Stewart Title Guaranty Company underwriting counsels and administrative personnel who support these counsel in their respective areas. In addition, the Regional Underwriting Counsel will coordinate with Agency Services Managers and affiliates for seminars and training as appropriate.

Richard Black, Bill Pratt and Fred Schraub as well as John Rothermel will continue to be available for underwriting call, emails and faxes from Stewart's independent agents and Stewart Title Company offices just as in the past.
